The Kitchen Collection: Shaws of Darwen Fireclay Sinks

Since 1897, Shaws of Darwen have manufactured ceramic heavy duty fireclay kitchen sinks from their factory in North West England and still use the same traditional materials and techniques.

Each handmade sink that is made carries an impression on its base of the name of the master craftsmen who created it. The artisan products have become design icons and are found in beautiful kitchens all over the world. The sinks are handcrafted for life – and yours to treasure for years to come.
